

SPECIAL BUY, SELL WHEAT UP

Bears Bring Out All Depressing Reports, but Purchasers Feel Rally Is Overdue.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Wheat took a decided upward swing to-day chiefly as a result of speculative buying based on rumors that a rally was overdue. The market closed strong at 1 1/4 cts. per bushel higher, with December 1.23 1/2 cts. and May 1.27 1/2 cts. to 1.27 3/4 cts. Corn finished 1/2 cts. lower to 1/2 cts. per bushel, and oats advanced, and provisions unchanged to 5 cts. lower.

At first wheat continued the decline that had been in progress for a week, with most traders giving attention to the lack of important European demand for shipments from the United States. Bears put emphasis, too, on reports that Germany, Italy and France had wheat much larger than crops this year than last. Word that the four business at Minneapolis was dull counted also as a depressing factor. In the last half of the day, however, persistent buying of wheat by professional operators who had been conspicuous sellers of late absorbed all the surplus offerings and forced values into rapid ascent. The market closed at the top, although further rain in Canada, causing crop damage, was about the only bullish new development in sight.

Corn and oats fluctuated with wheat. On the down turn September corn touched the lowest price for that month on record since 1909.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions, especially lard, in which liquidating sales were heavy.

Export sales of cash wheat yesterday were placed finally at about 720,000 bushels, mostly of Manitoba, Switzerland bought a cargo of Canadian wheat notwithstanding the announcement on Wednesday that that country had arranged with Rumania for its wheat supplies. Reports were current that Italy had purchased another cargo of Atlantic wheat, which would be the second one bought by her in two days, but it was stated later that the order had not been filled. There was also business in durum and Gulf wheats.
